

Holiday Wine Bottles

Supply List:

- Wine bottle - label removed, cleaned, and dried
- White chalk paint
- Water
- Paper cup/bowl
- Spray adhesive
- Epsom salt
- White glitter
- Hot glue
- Twine/ribbon/cord/string
- Charms or snowflakes
- Cork lights

Step One: Make sure your wine bottle is thoroughly cleaned and the label has been removed completely. We've tried all sorts of techniques such as soaking in boiling water, filling with boiling water, scraping and peeling! There is no wrong way - as long as it gets done! Some bottles required a couple of different techniques with a little Goo-Gone to finish up.

Step Two: Mix a small amount of chalk paint (think 2-3 TBSP) with a few drops of water in a paper cup/bowl. The consistency should be like White-Out to help coat the inside and create a frosted effect when dried.

Step Three: Pour the paint mix into the bottle and begin to swirl around to coat the inside. Work your way from the bottom up. To get the best coverage in the neck, slowly tip upside down over the paint cup/bowl and let it drip back in. Make sure it's fully coated before draining excess back into the cup/bowl.

NOTE: The paint inside the bottle can take a VERY long time to dry. If you are looking for a perfectly solid painted bottle, we recommend spray painting the outside. The effect we've done today will dry in a streaky snowy pattern perfect for our winter decor.

Step Four: Mix epsom salt and glitter onto a cleared work surface. Next, use spray adhesive to coat the bottle wherever you would like the textured snow. Allow about a minute for the glue to tack, then roll it into the salt and glitter mixture for coverage. Gently tap the bottle on the table to shake off any excess.

Step Five: Glue a dot on the base of the neck to secure the end of your wrapping of choice. Once stable, glue a line up and continue wrapping around cording so that it stays in place. When the neck is covered to your desire, use a separate piece of cording to tie a bow at the base.

Personalization: Use Decorate to your heart's desire! Use charms on the bow, or fill with greenery. Tie on ornaments or other festive decor. You can also play with paint colors and wine bottle colors! Have fun and show us what you create!

Happy Crafting!
