October was jammed full of programs here at the library! These photos are from the Tea Party of Terror, Haunted History with the Black Swamp Medicine Girls, Fall Button Canvas Adult Craft Class, and Trunk or Treat at ProMedica and the Commons. October still has a couple more fantastic programs before we bring this month to a close and move on to November. The month of November at the library has numerous great programs too! Make sure to pick up an adult or children's program calendar next time you're visiting Way Library. You won't want to miss our FALL BOOK SALE or the Evening of Strings or the T'Hanks'giving Movie Marathon. Enjoy November's Newsletter!!!

Happening at Way Library

Weekender Food Bags Continue in November

The library will continue to work with the Islamic Food Bank to provide bags of food to kids in need throughout the fall. The food will be supplied and packed by the food bank and distributed at the library once a week. Bags will be available on a first-come, first-served basis outside of the Mercy Family Activity Center in the library on Fridays, November 4, 11, and 18 at 3 pm and Wednesday, November 23 at 3 pm.

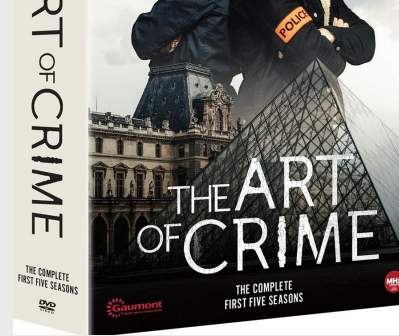

Truly unlike anything else you will have ever read. Bold Ventures: Thirteen Tales of Architectural Tragedy by Charlotte Van den Broeck tells the story of thirteen flawed buildings, the creative process, and the tragic death by suicide (or was it) of each of the thirteen architects. Together with the author, the reader will travel throughout Europe over many centuries to discover how architects bring to life ideas and plans and how devastating it can be when the final result is not in keeping with the plans.

New TV Thriller in French with English Subtitles

Way Library has added seasons 1-5 of the French TV series The Art of Crime. Police Captain Antoine Verlay knows nothing of culture or art yet he is assigned to the Central Office for the Fight against Trafficking in Cultural Goods. He is partnered with Florence Chaddagne, an art historian, together they must solve art-related murder cases. While working to solve their cases they dig into the history of great artists and their art. Saisissant!

Way Library Food Drive

Way Library will be collecting items for PCU Food Pantry now through November 30.

Currently, the PCU Food Pantry inventory is especially low and the demand for food and personal hygiene items is escalating. This food drive will provide a wonderful opportunity for our Perrysburg community to assist our neighbors in need.

Pantry items in need right now include hygiene items (toothpaste, shampoo, and soap), boxed cereal, and individually packaged snack foods such as granola bars, cookies, crackers, etc.

December
Spice of the Month

Chamomile

Ancient Romans often used Chamomile in incense and to flavor drinks, as well as a medicinal herb. Roman Chamomile was not actually cultivated by the Romans but was actually discovered by an English botanist. He found it growing in the wild in the Coliseum and brought it back to England, where the primary form of the plant is now cultivated.
