We had a great time with Black Diamond's Your Midwest Garden Podcast team of Michael O'Rourke and Scott Sandstrom in March at Way Library. Not only did they record their podcast and answer our questions about gardening but they gave away really awesome gardening supplies from Black Diamond Garden Center.

April has many great programs planned, so look at the program schedule and plan to attend some fantastic programs this month.

Hip and Knee Replacement presented by Mercy Health

Thursday, April 6 at 2 pm

As part of the Mercy Health Better Living Speaker Series Orthopedic Surgeon Dr. Richard Miller will present the latest advancements in minimally invasive surgery for hip and knee replacement that promise less pain, faster recovery, and improved mobility. If you suffer chronic hip or knee pain, this is a program you don't want to miss.

Dr. Richard Miller is a graduate of the University of Toledo and earned his Doctor of Osteopathy (DO) degree from the University of Osteopathic Medicine and Health Sciences in Des Moines, Iowa. He completed his residency training in orthopedic surgery at Mercy Health – St. Vincent Medical Center. Dr. Miller spent 13 years practicing in Richmond, Indiana and now works with the Mercy Health – Orthopedic Specialists on the campus of Mercy Health – St. Vincent Medical Center.

Dr. Miller has an interest in trauma care as well as sports medicine. Specializing in adult reconstructive surgery and joint replacement for hip, knee, and shoulder, he provides NAVIO robotics for knee surgeries and the ASI approach for total hip replacement. Dr. Miller is also the current Program Director for Mercy Health's Orthopedic Residency program.

This educational presentation is free and open to the public. It will take place in the Mercy Health Activity Center on the main floor of Way Library. Registration is not required. For more information about the program, visit waylibrary.info or call 419-874-3135 ext. 119.

Electronics Recycling Drive

Saturday, April 22 from 9 am to 4:30 pm

Way Library will be partnering with RecellOne for our annual electronics recycling drive in celebration of Earth Day! In the far end of the parking lot (near the Curbside Pickup parking spots), library and RecellOne staff will be on-hand to unload your unwanted, unused, broken, or obsolete electronics. All items are distributed to different recycling organizations around the state, avoiding the landfill, for proper electronics recycling.

We will only be collecting household electronics, so no large appliances or CRT TVs.

Examples of accepted items are:

- Smartphones, tablets, laptops, desktop computers
- Computer monitors, flat-screen TVs (no rear-projection TVs)
- Toasters, clothing irons, microwave ovens
- Christmas lights, batteries, VHS, and cassette tapes
- ...and more!

LOCAL AUTHOR FAIR

Sunday, April 23 from 1 to 4 pm

Twenty-five Northwest Ohio authors will display their books on the main level of Way Library. It is a great opportunity to meet and chat with local authors and purchase their books.

A fantastic array of local author talent representing a broad range of genres, including children's picture books, mystery thrillers, action, adventure, biographies, inspirational, local history, poetry, and more, will be at this free public event. There will be books for all ages, including children, teens, adults, and families.

Authors will be handling their own book sales. What form of payment (cash, check, or credit card) that you can use will depend on what the author accepts. Authors will also be available for book signings.

There will be chances to win prizes throughout the event for those who attend.

At 7 pm, join park naturalists to meet animals like those in the Star Wars universe. Costumes are highly encouraged, come search for Ewoks in your favorite Star Wars attire! Registration required, register at wcparks.org.

Bad Art Day Saturday, May 6 at 2 pm

Art is hard and making good art is really, really hard. Bad art, on the other hand, can be a thing of beauty that anyone can do. In this program, participants will get 1 hour to complete their artistic endeavors, creating their own work of bad art. No standards, no second guesses, no judgement, just an hour of unbridled creativity. There will be prompts and inspirational items available to spark ideas as well as a wide variety of materials and mediums for making art. Drawing, sculpting, paper crafts, it's entirely up to you. At the end of the event, all participants will vote for their favorite (not "best") piece and the artists will receive a prize. The art will be on display in the libraries lower level following the event. Registration is required so enough materials can be prepared, but you are welcome to participate alone or as a team. Required registration opens Saturday, April 15.
