The Summer Connection - Way Public Library's Summer Program Guide has arrived! Make sure to check out all the programs Way Library has planned for the summer and put a few on your calendar to attend! There are programs for children, teens, adults, and the whole family. This year we decided to go back and give 2020's Summer Reading theme, Imagine Your Story, a second chance. Some programs require registration which begins on Thursday, June 1. We hope to see you at the library this summer!

Happening at Way Library

6th Biennial Veterans Exhibit Invitational at Way Library Call for Artists

Way Library is pleased to announce the 2023 Veterans Art Exhibition: “Love of Country.” The exhibit will be on display in Way Library’s lower-level gallery from November 5, 2023, until January 3, 2024. This art show is an invitational exhibition to showcase the talents of all honorably discharged U.S. veterans while recognizing them for their service. Veterans, as well as family members who wish to commemorate them, are invited to submit artwork for the show. Entry details and the official application are available online at waylibrary.info or at the library at 101 E. Indiana Ave, Perrysburg OH 43551.

Way Public Library

Way Public Library would like to thank everyone who participated in the strategic plan community survey and focus groups. Your opinions about our library and community are important to us and will help to guide our services, programs, and other priorities over the coming years!

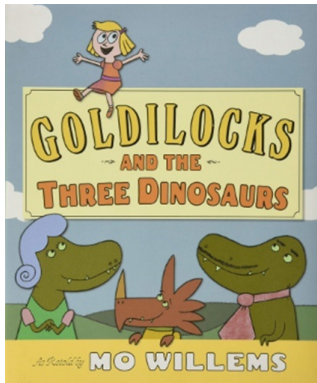

THANK YOU!
