Way Library Hosts Presentation on Transformations in American Opera Thursday, March 2 at 7 pm

Way Library, in cooperation with the Institute for Culture and Society at Bowling Green State University, welcomes Ryan Ebright, Associate Professor of Musicology at BGSU, for a presentation on Meredith Monk's opera Atlas on Thursday, March 2 at 7 pm. Though operatic in some ways, it tells a story through music, song, and movement without words. Atlas was one of many works that redefined opera in the late twentieth century. How did these unusual operas come about? Join us for this presentation tracing the development of Atlas, using its creation as a window into broader transformations in American opera.

Ryan Ebright serves as an Associate Professor of Musicology at BGSU. His research centers on contemporary opera and new music. Beyond his academic work, Dr. Ebright is active as a public scholar, with publications in The New Yorker, New York Times, Opera News, and the online magazine NewMusicBox. He has given pre-concert lectures and public talks for Opera Philadelphia, the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Toledo Symphony, and WGTE Public Media. In the fall of 2019, he was in residence at the Way Public Library.

Admission is free and open to the public. For specific accommodation requests or inquiries, please contact the

Lymphedema presented by Mercy Health

Tuesday, March 7 at 2 pm

As part of the Mercy Health Better Living Speaker Series Mercy Health's Certified Lymphedema Therapists Courtney Andryc and Mary Pollock will discuss the causes of lymphedema, signs and symptoms, and available treatment options on Tuesday, March 7 at 2 PM at Way Library. Do you have visible swelling in a specific area of your body? If so, you may have lymphedema, a chronic condition that affects the lymphatic system.

Courtney Andryc, OTD, OTR/L, CLT has been with Mercy Health since 2020. She began her career as an Occupational Therapist in 2017, and eventually found her niche in treating patients who are experiencing lymphedema. Courtney obtained her Certified Lymphedema Therapist training from Norton School of Lymphatic Therapy in 2020. She continued with advanced training for the treatment of head and neck lymphedema from the Academy of Lymphatic Studies (ACOLS) in April 2021. Courtney has extensive experience in treating patients with lymphedema of the arms and legs with manual techniques and bandaging options. Her special interests are with oncologic patients, including treating patients with breast cancer-related lymphedema.

Mary Pollock OTD, OTR/L, CLT is a certified lymphedema therapist with Mercy Health treating patients at both Perrysburg Hospital and Sunforest Court. In 2012, she graduated from the University of Toledo where she received her Doctorate in Occupational Therapy and has been treating lymphedema. She obtained her certification as a lymphedema therapist in 2014 through the Norton School of Lymphatic Therapy and then advanced training in treating head and neck lymphedema in 2019. She is a member of the National Lymphedema Network. She lends a unique perspective as a practitioner who specializes in lymphedema because she is a breast cancer survivor.

This educational presentation is free and open to the public. It will take place in the Mercy Health Activity Center on the main floor of Way Library. Registration is not required. For more information about the program, visit waylibrary.info or call 419-874-3135 ext. 119.

Affordable Connectivity Program Tuesday, March 7 at 4 pm

Join us on Tuesday, March 7 at 4 pm as Way Library's connectivity champion-in-residence discusses the Affordable Connectivity Program. The Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) is a government program to help lower-income households pay for internet service. In some cases, internet service to your home can be obtained for little or no cost. Applying for this benefit is easy, and assistance from the Connectivity

Champions is just a phone call away.

Craig Batke is the connectivity champion-in-residence at Way Library for winter and spring, 2023. Ohio Connectivity Champions work to improve accessibility to the internet. An experienced professional, with over 12 years of teaching in public and private schools, Craig has a vast knowledge of computer science, information technology, and financial literacy. Craig was previously employed with the U.S. Census Bureau, where he was responsible for training employees on field applications and data collection. He is exceptional at taking complex subjects and explaining them in simple ways.

Playing Card Necklace Adult Craft Kit Available on Thursday, March 9 at 9 am

On Thursday, March 9 at 9 am, March's adult craft kits will be available to pick up at the Way Library circulation desk. Each kit will contain instructions and supplies to make a fun playing card necklace. All 2023 crafts will have a component that will be a recycled material. For this necklace, crafters will be using a discarded playing card and a tumbling tower block piece. In addition to the craft kit, scissors and a pencil will be needed to complete this craft at home.

Instructions for the Playing Card Necklace

Adult Craft are available online at waylibrary.info under the Popular Links tab. Craft instructions including supply lists for the other crafts sponsored by the library since March 2020 are also available on our website. March 2023's adult craft kit is sponsored by the Way Public Library Foundation & Friends.

Supplies are limited. For more information, please visit waylibrary.info or call 419-874-3135 extension 119.

Stop the Bleed

Tuesday March 14 at 1 pm

Mercy Health - St. Vincent's Trauma Program is offering "Stop the Bleed" training to individuals on Tuesday, March 14 at 1 pm at Way Library. There is no charge, but advance registration is required at waylibrary.info.

We all hope a tragedy never occurs, but as violence increases in the world, so does the need for responsive-action training. Motivated by the 2012 Sandy Hook tragedy,

"Stop the Bleed," an initiative to prevent excessive bleeding in emergencies, was established by the American College of Surgeons to limit deaths from violent injuries. By teaching citizens how to act as immediate responders, they can limit the trauma from severe blood loss and help save lives.

Injuries can happen at any time. In an emergency, immediately receiving care can be the difference between life and death. The following ABC procedure is encouraged to prolong a person's life:

1. Stay safe and ALERT 9-1-1
2. Find the Bleeding
3. Compress

"Stop the Bleed" education is vitally important. Training programs and public awareness campaigns such as CPR and the Heimlich Maneuver have helped save many lives. "Stop the Bleed" can do the same by giving people the knowledge and skills to respond to a bleeding emergency. Hands-on training will give people the confidence to assist someone in a life-threatening situation until help arrives.

This educational presentation is free and open to the public. It will take place in the Mercy Health Activity Center on the main floor of Way Library. Registration is required. For more information or to register for the program, click "Registration is required" or call 419-874-3135 ext. 119.

Topical Tuesdays

Tuesday, March 14 at 2 pm

Way Library and the League of Women Voters of the Perrysburg Area invite you to join Perrysburg Township Administrator Jon Eckel on March 14 at 2 pm for a presentation on Perrysburg Township. This program will take place at the Perrysburg Township Fire Station, 26609 Lime City Road. Mr. Eckel will be joined by Thomas Brice, Fire Chief for the Township and other divisional heads.

Jon Eckel, the recently retired city administrator for Perrysburg, was named as the new township administrator at the October 19 regular trustees meeting. Eckel had spent his career working for the city of Perrysburg which included working in water treatment and directing the Service Department for many years.

Chief Thomas Brice has been a member of the department since 1993. Currently Chief Brice is certified as a Paramedic, Firefighter II, Fire Safety Inspector, Fire Instructor, and a CE Instructor.

Admission is free and open to the public.
