September is Library Card Sign-Up Month!

If you don't have a library card, sign up for one. If you lost your Way Library card, replace it for FREE!

Way Library's Fall Program Guide has hit mailboxes in the 43551! If you do not live in Perrysburg, be sure to pick one up when you're at the library.

We have many programs and special events scheduled for September, October, and November. Included in this newsletter are all the programs for September and a few for October so you can get them on your calendar!

Thanks to our friends at the Kiwanis Club of Perrysburg, Way Library will have Sensory Play Time on Fridays, September 22, October 20, and November 17 at 10 am for an hour of open play time with toys created just for children with sensory issues. Children of all ages will be able to try out the library's liquid floor tiles, go through a secret tunnel, roll around a confetti rain ball, and much more. Registration is not required.

Happening at Way Library

Way Public Library

will be closed on

Telling Your Life Story

Thursdays, September 7, 14 & 21
from 10:30 am-12 pm

In this three-session class, Dorothy Stanton will guide you as you document your life story and offer helpful examples, inspiration, and resources to get you off to a good start on your literary journey. It's not necessary to be skilled at writing. All you need is a notebook, a pen or pencil, and your memories. This class is free, but registration is required. Class size is limited to 8. THIS CLASS IS FULL BUT THERE IS A WAITLIST. For more information or to register for the program, visit

DIY Zine Workshop

Saturday, September 9 at 1 pm

Whether you're wondering what a Zine (Pronounced "zeen") is or you're an avid zine collector or maker, join us at the library as we learn about zines and make our own. Zines started out as homemade magazines, but over time have evolved - from poetry collections to scrapbooks to comics and more! We will walk through the history of zines and zine culture and display some examples of zines for in-person browsing. We'll have the basic materials ready to create your own zines, but feel free to bring your favorite art supplies. Registration is not required.

Downtown Perrysburg Building Tour

DIVERGENT
dietitian

Weight Management: Introducing a Paradigm Shift in Our Approach to Weight Monday, September 18 at 6 pm

Bethany A. Dario, MPH, RDN, LD from Divergent Dietician will introduce a paradigm shift in our approach to weight. If you struggle with maintaining a healthy weight, find yourself trying diet after diet, or following a plan only to fall off after several weeks, this program is for you. Traditional weight management recommends physical interventions such as diet and exercise changes but what if the way we think about food and our bodies played an equally large role? Rather than continue to “try harder,” possibly we try something different. Registration is not required.

Third Monday Night Book Discussion Monday, September 18 at 7 pm

The Book Eaters by Sunyi Dean will be discussed this month.
Registration is not required.

Cruising Norway with Judy Pfaffenberger Tuesday, September 19 at 2 pm

Cruise the beautiful fjords of coastal Norway. Bike downhill from a glacier to the waterfront village of Flam. Walk through the quaint city of Bergen, sail from the city, and hear 3000 voices on the P & O Britannia singing "God Save the Queen."

Body Image: Cultivate Confidence by Gaining Tools to Make your Body your Ally

Monday, September 25 at 6 pm

The experts from Divergent Dietician will be here to help us learn how to cultivate confidence by gaining tools to make your body our ally rather than our enemy. Comparing our body size and shape to the cultural ideal, using our bodies as the scapegoat or driving our bodies to unrealistic standards of perfectionism for "health" often result in discontentment and sometimes even mental health conditions. But how do we step into confidence when the first thing others notice is our appearance? This program will offer a blueprint for steps towards a healthier relationship with your body. Registration is not required.

Topical Tuesdays Native Plants

Tuesday, September 26 at 7 pm

Way Library and the League of Women Voters of the Perrysburg Area welcome Kate Mason-Wolf as she explains which plants are considered native plants, where they can be purchased, and why we should plant them. Everything you need
in one app

Get the App!

If you are an Apple or Android user, you can now get access to your library account with one click! Download the Way Library app on the App Store or Google Play.

You can manage checkouts and holds on your account, search the catalog, browse book recommendations, quickly access the Curbside Pickup feature, connect to social media, and more!

If you need a little guidance, take our video tour with step-by-step instructions for downloading and using the app.

Convenient Curbside Pickup

Curbside pickup remains popular at Way for its safety and convenience. Any patron can pick up books and other physical materials using our contactless service.

Set your appointment now at curbside.waylibrary.info.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT!

Gifts made to the Way Public Library Foundation & Friends
provide a long-lasting and positive impact on the community.

Contact Information

I know I've said this before but autumn is my favorite! Pumpkin spice, football, a blanket, and a book make for the perfect day. Enjoy September's newsletter.
