Managing Stress and Anxiety Tuesday, March 5 at 2 pm

In today's fast-paced world, stress and anxiety have become all too common. Join Rachel Campana as she dives into effective strategies for managing and reducing stress and anxiety and discusses practical techniques for relaxation, mindfulness, and stress reduction that can be easily incorporated into daily routines. We will explore the connection between stress and anxiety, understand the impact on your mental and physical well-being, and discover healthy coping mechanisms. Whether you're seeking tools to navigate everyday stressors or looking for ways to alleviate chronic anxiety, this program will provide you with practical insights and techniques to find a sense of calm and regain control over your emotional well-being.

Rachel Campana is a licensed independent social worker. She has a specialization in Trauma and is a Certified Clinical Trauma Professional and a Star Behavioral Health Provider for military members and their families.
